The Nineteen Thirty-Four
MOUNDUILDER
Published by the Student Body of Southwestern College, Winfield Kansas
SOUTHWESTERNERS keep alive their enthusiasm for their college by the mystic creature called the Jinx. It has created a great deal of interest in the previous years of athletic competition with Fairmount of Wichita. For years the Jinx has appeared on the eve of great battles, adding more Builder enthusiasm. The Jinx rests securely in the vaults of the college ready and waiting for another chance to appear.
COME, Jinx, Spirit of Southwestern, carrying our beloved college into paths of victory on the field of conquest, in our scholastic pursuits, in our welding of friendships. Draw near, mysterious creature, and permit us to chat a bit of the love we have for our college and for your driving stimuli to higher and nobler endeavor unconquered either by disappointments or hardships. Continue a moment more in our presence, for it is to you, Jinx, Spirit of Southwestern, we wish to dedicate this book.

Far above the Walnut Valley,
On a lofty height,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Bathed in golden light.
Far above the stir and bustle,
Of the busy town,
Reared against the arch of Heaven,
Looks she calmly down.
To the heights she calls us daily,

Alma Mater, dear.

Heights of knowledge, hope and courage,

Free from doubt and fear.
Light the chorus, speed it onward,
Over hill and vale;
Hail to thee, beloved Southwestern,
Alma Mater, hail!
"Nothing has such power to broaden the mind as ability to investigate systematically and truly all that comes under thy observation in life."

—Marcus Aurelius.
FRANK E. MOSSMAN
President of Southwestern College

A. B., Morningside College, 1903; A. M., Morningside College, 1905; D. D., Upper Iowa University, 1909; LL. D., Southwestern College, 1929.
"THE Spirit of the Campus"—it is a thing difficult of definition but genuinely real; the freshman senses it, the sophomore, junior and senior court and cultivate its acquaintance, the alumni weave it into their vision of Alma Mater. Depressions come and go, social standards shift, political forms change, but ever there remains that beautiful idealism which is the spirit of the campus. Four years of association with faculty members and students weave themselves into the lives of the men and women in personal companionship. Together they discuss and study systems of philosophy, seek to find the scientific method in research, and move down the aisles of time, viewing together the great personalities of history, their weaknesses and strengths; and find choice fellowship in the realization of character. The incidental problems of a day fall into the background as they view together the sweep of the years and the progress which has been made. The relationship of student to teacher, and of teacher to student, is one of admiration and respect. The Spirit of Southwestern, however, is not this; it is the result of this. It is what I am plus the envisioning of myself in what I would become. It is not stone, mortar, brick or campus. Rather, it is a beautiful and lasting ideal.

"Hail to Thee, beloved Southwestern,
Alma Mater, Hail!"

FRANK E. MOSSMAN, President.

THE Order of the Mound was established in 1917 for the purpose of giving recognition to those students who had maintained a high scholastic record. At the close of the first semester, from ten to twelve per cent of the highest ranking seniors of each school, the Liberals and the Fine Arts, is elected to membership by the faculty. Those who have not had seventy-five hours of residence work are not eligible to membership. At the final chapel the new members are presented with an “Order of the Mound” key similar to the Phi Beta Kappa Key.

Those elected to the Order of the Mound for 1933 are as follows:

Deever, Harold
Henderson, Wayne
Holmes, Elza
Hunter, Evelyn
Marvel, Ruth
Moncrief, Frank
Newland, Frances
Spear, Lucile
Vinsonhaler, Edith

Those elected to the Order of the Mound for 1934 are as follows:

Coe, Francis
Crawford, Junior
Force, Helen
Garton, Edna
Gleckler, Donald
Hamilton, Tom
Royer, Lester
Phillips, Maravene

CONTINUING to prove herself a powerful and capable governing body for students, the Southwestern Student Council served well as the nucleus for democratic student opinion and action. The council is composed of four members and two alternates from each of the four classes and is organized to promote constructive school spirit, to develop harmonious relations between faculty and student organizations, and to provide a representative group to take the initiative in all student enterprises.

The Student Council of this year upheld a policy of “Less restriction and regulation on upperclass students in scholastic and social activities.” The Council was partly responsible for the movement toward a revised class attendance system which was begun by the faculty in an experimental way. In administering the student activity funds, the Council successfully supervised the new budgetary system for each department.

Other significant accomplishments were: Sponsoring the President’s Club dinner in the fall, promoting an all-school party and annual Hobo Day, sponsoring worthwhile student assemblies and pep rallies, and developing the Student Union.

Members of the Executive Committee of the Student Council:

First Semester: Roger Kirkwood, President; Merlin Trumbull, Vice-President; Gerald Warren, Finance Chairman; Helen Monroe, Social Chairman; Don Gleckler, Chapel Chairman.

Second Semester: Roger Kirkwood, President; Virgil Moreland, Vice-President; Gerald Warren, Finance Chairman; Garland Hattan, Social Chairman; Don Gleckler, Chapel Chairman.
THE Inter-Society Council was organized in 1923 for the purpose of promoting friendship, regulating rush and pledge activities, and settling all society problems.

This year the Council sponsored the organizing of a new society, the Aurora Laconian, which was formed from members of the old societies.

Friendly competition is promoted each year by the sponsoring of the Little Theatre Plays, which are given by each society each semester.

The Council is composed of two members from each society, the president and a representative, and a president which is chosen each year. Dr. D. L. MacFarlane has been elected president of the Council ever since its organization.
The Spirit of Southwestern has been displayed in scholastic, forensic, athletic, music and social activities of the campus. We, as Southwesterners, have been true to this spirit which has been symbolized for us in the mystic creature, the "Jinx." The Moundbuilder this year is dedicated to the "Jinx," the Spirit of Southwestern.

The staff has endeavored to put into this annual memories of college life which will become dearer each year you are away from the campus.

This book is your book. The editors have put into one cover the memories of our friendships and activities upon this beloved campus.
UNDER the careful business managership of Mark Swoyer, The Southwestern Collegian returned to weekly issues this year after being published bi-weekly last. A new set-up was used with editors being selected from the journalism classes for six-weeks intervals, rather than one student editing the paper throughout the year. Chet Hamm, Howard Elrod, Max Weir, Harold Lang, George Frey were the editors for the first five periods, and Opal Hicks and Gnan Goodsell were joint editors for the sixth. Practically all the work of editing and reporting was done by the class in beginning journalism.

ENTERING its thirteenth year of activity, the String Choir has a fine reputation in the Middle West. A tour of considerable proportions is conducted each year. Its high standards of musicianship are the result of the efforts of its originator and director, Dean H. Hugh Altvater.

The Symphony Orchestra

DURING the past year the Southwestern College Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Professor C. O. Brown, has attained new heights in its readings of major symphonic works in addition to playing an important part in the success of the annual presentation of the “Elijah.”
Gamma Omicron

GAMMA OMICRON is an honorary organization for Home Economics majors. It was organized in October, 1921, for the purpose of giving training in poise and leadership. The members are selected from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes on the basis of scholastic achievement.

Kappa Omicron Phi

THE Mu Chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi, National Honorary Professional Fraternity for Home Economics majors, was organized in May, 1929. Its members are selected on the basis of scholarship, initiative, leadership, and personality for the purpose of developing women with higher ideals of sane living, with a deeper appreciation of the sanctity of the American Home. The pledges for the past semester are: Harriett Kelly, Dorothy Elliott, Anita Armour, and Hazel Flook.
K. K. Pep Club

THE K. K. Pep Club was organized in 1928 by fourteen spirited girls who felt the need of a recognized pep group. The club proposes to create friendliness among girls and to sustain interest in pep throughout the student body.

Builderettes

THE Builderettes, honorary athletic organization under the auspices of the W. A. A., has as its purpose the promotion of physical efficiency and interest in athletics for girls, and is open for membership to those who have won special distinction in physical activities.
Pi Kappa Delta

Pi Kappa Delta sponsors all Forensics. Southwestern placed first again in State Contests last year. One hundred and thirty-two debates with thirty-eight different colleges was the year’s record. Our debate coach is head of both the State Oratorical and Debate Associations. A full delegation goes to the National P. K. D. at Lexington, Kentucky this year.

The Quartet, one of the most popular organizations on the campus was in demand by the churches of the conference nearly every week-end, and a week's trip carried them through Western Kansas and Northern Oklahoma. The group is said by many critics to be one of the best in the state. This is the second year that these boys have sung together.

Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Marsh, Sponsor; Eybright, Cranston, Farber, Stocking
Snyder, Mossman, Kirkwood, Simpson, C. Brown, Franks

The Y. M. C. A. has held regular meetings every Wednesday night at the home of Dr. T. Reese Marsh, discussing problems of social and religious importance. The Y. M. C. A., in co-operation with the Y. W. C. A. has taken charge of the student union; we have brought Dr. Roy Burt to the campus for three days in February; and we have had a morning watch every Tuesday morning. The Y. M. C. A. Basketball Team lead in the Intramurals.
Dramatic activity on Southwestern reaches its climax in the Campus Players productions, and membership in the organization itself is the most cherished achievement of students of dramatic art. The personnel of the group is selected after preliminary tests in Society and Little Theater plays, and full membership is attained only after a period of probationary service.

The fall production in 1932 was “Holiday,” a modern comedy by Philip Barry. It was in this performance that Helen Force, president, and George Lancaster, business manager, gained admission. “She Stoops to Conquer,” Oliver Goldsmith’s rollicking comedy, was given to close the annual May Fete.

This year the Campus Players again delighted their audience with comedy, choosing St. John Erwin’s “Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary.” A side trip served as a new project for the organization, when the play was presented as a number of the Cedarvale Lyceum Course.

Miss Helen Graham is sponsor of the group and director of all productions.
THE Leneans was organized in 1927 under the direction of Miss Edith Dielmann of the Southwestern School of Fine Arts. They present a new religious play each year, and have appeared ninety-two times in the Southwest Kansas Conference.

The play this year, "He Forgot Not His People," by E. M. Mann, centers around the life of Moses, one of the outstanding characters of the Old Testament.

The Leneans have been so successful in presenting a religious message in drama form that they are much in demand over the conference.

The Student Personnel Department in Southwestern College, under the direction of Dean Webster P. Reese, was carefully planned and organized in the spring of 1933, and was put into actual operation with the opening of the college the following fall. It is composed of a council of faculty members, assisted by twenty-four upperclass students, who serve as counselors of specified groups of students, especially of freshmen.

The purpose which dominated the organization of the department and which has guided its activities was to render the greatest possible service to students in developing well-rounded personalities. The effort of the director and his staff, therefore, has been operative in three fields of personality development—the educational, the social, and the spiritual. The orientation of the new students, the proper housing of all the students, the social and religious life of the college community, educational and vocational guidance, placement service, personnel records and the students' personal problems—each of these interests has claimed the close attention of the department.

The work and activities of the Personnel Department are, performed quietly and unobtrusively, but the effects are subtle and far-reaching. The accomplishments of the first year have far surpassed the hopes of the director and the council. Now that the ground is well prepared, the harvest of the future years should be great.
UND ER the competent baton of Professor C. O. Brown, the Southwestern College Band of 35 pieces has attained a reputable standing among the College bands of this section.

The band is one of the most active organizations on the campus, appearing in uniform at every grid-iron fray and basketball game, where it has been a stimulator of pep and enthusiasm.

At various times throughout the year the band has given concerts in our chapel and in various towns throughout the conference. In each case they have represented the college in a superior manner.
THE English Club, an organization of those interested in literature, offers a program of events throughout the year which is of value to each member. Organized several years ago, the club has planned to stimulate a desire for personal skill and to provide for the members interesting programs of literary merit. The membership is made up chiefly of those whose major work is in the English Department, although anyone having real interest in literature may join.

During this year there were two outstanding events in the club's work. In the early part of the year two early English plays were presented, the "Abraham and Isaac" and the "Second Shepherd's Play." These typify an important period in the studying of the development of English drama, and were given this year by the class studying in that field, with both the direction and casting cared for by class members. Not only was the subject of great literary value, but the rendition was excellent.

The latter event was a lecture by Mrs. May Kennedy McCord on "Ozark Life and Folk Lore." Mrs. McCord, a native Ozarkian living in Springfield, Missouri, presented stories, songs, and an illuminating history of the Ozark "hill-billy" to a large audience which was delighted by her program.

The organization has been fortunate during this entire year in having so large a membership, and the attendance at meetings has been a gratifying evidence of the value of the work and of the members' concern.
THE Young Women's Christian Association of Southwestern College is composed of a group of women who are striving toward a goal of worthwhile Christian living. Through the mediums of a weekly discussion group, morning watch, varied social functions, Cosmopolitan Club, Campus Sister program, Mexican Night School, they have perpetuated throughout the campus a feeling of friendliness, happiness, and co-operation.

The Y. W. C. A. is headed by a cabinet chosen to lead the group in its activities and to make it a more effective organization. Each year delegates are sent to the Estes Park Conference where new ideas are gained.
Shadows dance on the cool, deep grass—lazy clouds float by—the passing student is invited to cast himself on the soft grass, and bid time stand still—but days run swiftly by—and life goes on.
Where is that romantic time
 That always seems so far away?
 I thought it was Tomorrow once—
 But now I think it’s Yesterday.

ATHLETICS
1932 Football Season

The football team this fall started out particularly strong but hit a slump and finished the season with only a fair record. Opening the season under the floodlights at Arkansas City the Builders rolled over Friends University, 49 to 0, and the next week traveled to Alva, Oklahoma, and defeated the Northwestern State Teachers, 19 to 0.

Opening their Central Conference season against the Pittsburg Teachers on Alumni field, the two old rivals battled to a 7-to-7 tie, when Merritt Mesch put over a touchdown in the closing minutes and Martin Ossowski booted the extra point that tied the score. After this game the fighting Presbyterians were encountered on a hot afternoon and neither team was able to score. The following week was home-coming for Southwestern grads and they saw the Builders humble the Emporia Hornets, 6 to 0, in a game well played on the part of both teams.

After the home-coming battle, the Builders faltered and lost the next four games, to Wichita University, Washburn College, Hays State College, and the Oklahoma Baptists of Shawnee, Oklahoma, closing the season on Thanksgiving day against the latter team.

Martin Ossowski and Leonard Noel were chosen co-captains to lead the Builders in the 1933 season, both these boys having received all-conference mention for their work.

Seniors lost through graduation were Virgil Bruce, Merritt Mesch, Byard Anderson, Clay Hildinger, Raymond McAllister, Ernest Radford, Allan Woolard, Dick Baltzell, Ernest Radford, Leonard Noel, and Martin Ossowski received mention on various all-conference teams.

1933 Football Season

THE 1933 Southwestern football season was characterized by good offensive play for the most part in that the team was able to score on all opponents played while the defense of the team was unable in many of the games to function to the extent that games could be won.

The Builders opened their season at Oklahoma City against the strong Goldbugs, and after playing them a close game for three quarters, crumbled in the last stanza and went down to a 33 to 2 defeat. The following week the Pittsburg Gorillas defeated the Purple athletes 12 to 2.

The Builders played the College of Emporia at Arkansas City in a night game and after outplaying the Presbyterians and leading 6 to 0 at the half, weakened in the last half to let Emporia tie the score at 6 to 6. The next game was a free scoring affair against the Hays Tigers at Hays and again the Builder defense was not sufficient to protect an early lead the team had built up and Southwestern College again suffered a 15 to 19 defeat.

The Emporia Teachers took the measure of the Builders 19 to 7. The Armistice Day game was the thriller of the season with the Builders leading 16 to 6 in the second quarter against the champion Shockers. But, the Purple team again demonstrated that their defensive play was below par and allowed the Shockers to total 27 points while their offense stayed at 16.

The Bacone Indians scalped the Purple collegians 14 to 7 at Muskogee and the Builders came back the next week to score their first conference win of the season over Washburn of Topeka 6 to 0. The season was closed against Friends by a lop-sided victory of 38 to 0.

Of the twenty-two men who earned letters five will be lost by graduation, leaving 17 to carry on next year.

Evan Thomas, star blocking halfback, and Martin Ossowski, all-conference tackle, were elected to captain the 1934 team.
1933 Basket Ball Season

STARTING the season with rather dim prospects the Builders came along at a rapid rate and through excellent co-operation and team play finished the season in third place in the Central Conference, the Wichita University Wheatshockers and the Pittsburg Gorillas tying for the flag. This was the highest the Southwestern team has reached in the conference ranking since the Central was formed.

With two seniors, Virgil Bruce and Milton Whitson, and one junior, Chester Hamm, as a nucleus, four freshmen were fitted into the line-up that carried most of the burden of play in the conference games. The four first year men were Gerald Caywood at center, Joe Urban, Earl Bryan and Lamar Aringdale at the forward posts.

Seven games were won in conference play including one victory over Washburn, two over Emporia Teachers, two over Hays State College, and two over College of Emporia. One game was lost to Washburn and two each to Wichita University and Pittsburg Teachers.

In non-conference play the Builders defeated Friends University twice, Bethel College twice, Central State Teachers once, Southwestern Alumni, and lost games to Alva Teachers and West Texas Teachers.

Gerald Caywood, Milton Whitson and Virgil Bruce received considerable recognition on all-star teams chosen by coaches and sports writers for their outstanding work during the season.

Chester Hamm was elected captain for the 1933-34 season.
1934 Basket Ball Season

The Southwestern 1934 basketball season will go down as the best the school has enjoyed since the formation of the Central Conference five years ago. The Builders finished their conference season play in second place and were the only team to defeat the conference champions, the Emporia Teachers, this season. The Builders started their Central Conference season by defeating the Washburn Ichabods at Topeka in a thrilling game by two points and took on the fast traveling Emporia Teachers at Winfield in their second conference game. The Builders dropped this game after a terrific battle, 29 to 30. After this game the Purple athletes went into a slump and dropped games to Hays and Pittsburg. Their next encounter was a return game with the Emporia Hornets and in this game the Builders got revenge for their earlier season game and took in the champions, 35 to 26, in what was claimed to be the fastest game played in Emporia for many years. The Builders' next game was with the Pittsburg Gorillas at Winfield and in this game the proteges of John Lance were held the first 33 minutes of the game without a field goal. The Builders won that game, 21 to 12, and avenged their two-point defeat at the hands of the Gorillas at Pittsburg. Washburn and Hays were both defeated in return games, the Southwestern team closing its conference season at Hays by defeating the tall Tigers 38 to 24.

Outside the conference the Builders won most of their games including victories over Alva Teachers, Central State Teachers, Oklahoma City University, Arizona University, Friends University, and the Southwestern Alumni.
THE Builders enjoyed at least a fair track season, winning three dual and triangular meets, placing second in a triangular meet and fourth in a quadrangular. Several men made a good showing in the annual Central Conference meet that was held at Emporia in the fastest meet ever held in the state.

In a warm-up meet between Tonkawa, Arkansas City, and Independence Junior Colleges the Builders won rather handily on the Ark City track. The following week, the Builders took the El Dorado and Arkansas City Colleges in a triangular. The Builders' annual dual meet with Friends went to the Builders with a rather lop-sided score. In the triangular between Wichita University, Southwestern and Friends the Builders came in second to the Shockers, and in the quadrangular at Emporia between the two Emporia schools, Wichita University and the Builders, the Purple athletes were trailing when the points were totaled.

In the conference meet at Emporia, Ray Overeem took third in the low hurdles and in so doing broke the old conference record; Milton Whitson took second in the pole vault with Virgil Moreland tying for third; Dick Baltzell took a third in the discus.

Men winning most points for the season were Clayton Gerboth in the distance races, Ray Overeem in dashes and low hurdles, Dick Baltzell in discus and javelin, Virgil Moreland in pole vault and high jump, Milton Whitson in pole vault.

1933 Track Season
Baseball

AFTER being dropped as a sport for one year, baseball was again played as a varsity sport in 1932 and 1933 and has been dropped again this year because of various conflicts.

The 1932 season was quite successful, the Builders defeating every team played, at least once, with the exception of Oklahoma City. The outstanding achievement of the season was a victory over the Chiloco Indians who were generally recognized as having the best team in the entire Middle West.

The 1933 season was not so successful as the previous one, the Purple nine winning only two games. The highlight of the season was a two-game series with Kansas State at Manhattan and although the Big Six team won both games the two teams were even on a basis of earned runs.

Intramural Sports

Each year, an intramural athletic program is carried on at Southwestern College. This year the program was under the capable direction of the Assistant Coach Donald Cooper. Tournaments are held in basketball, golf, tennis, wrestling, and boxing. Increased attendance has been noted each year since the intramural program was begun at Southwestern College.

The organization winning each tournament is awarded a trophy. After the trophy has remained with the same organization for three years the trophy is kept permanently.

This book goes to press before the golf and tennis tournaments are played and it is impossible to list the winners.

AS THE 1934 Moundbuilder is completed we commend the Staff on their diligent work and co-operation, which has helped to make this book a pleasure to edit.

The support of the student body and subscribers has helped to make this book possible and we wish to thank you one and all.

We wish to acknowledge the services of Mr. Maplesden of Burger-Baird Engraving Company, Mr. Bassman of Midland Printing Company, Mr. Medlin, company representative, Hickerson Studio, and Miss Grace Dressler, Faculty Advisor.

Thelma Humburg, Editor.
Gerald Miller, Business Manager.
There is no need for a wordy "blurb" to emphasize the quality of "KRAFT BUILT" Yearbooks. Their quality speaks for itself, as it does in this book.
