

DEATHS

1920s

Elizabeth Everly '27 died Oct. 18, 2006, at the age of 101. Elizabeth was the church organist at the Winfield Church of Christ, Scientist, for many years. She was a partner and operator of the Everly Lumber Company for many years.

1930s

James Wilson '34 died Sept. 26, 2006 at the age of 94. James worked for Skelley Oil and Socony-Vacuum (Mobil Oil) from which he retired in 1975 after 33 years. Survivors include his wife, Jeri; a sister, Mary Wilson '47, and a brother, Wayne '40.

Earl Bryan '36 died Aug. 12, 2006, at the age of 92. A retired educator and coach, Earl led the Hugoton High School track team to a state championship in 1938. He also taught school and coached in Cimarron and Sterling. He returned to Hugoton in 1944 where he became the manager and later owner of the Parker Grain Company.

Edward Howe '39 died May 23, 2006. Survivors include his wife, Betty.

Thelma Porter '39 died Sept. 16, 2006 at the age of 96. She was a retired elementary school teacher.

1940s

Mildred (Tripp) Mitchell '40 died Aug. 11, 2006. She was an active volunteer with 4-H, United Methodist Women, American Cancer Society, and Meals on Wheels.

James Conrad '45 died Aug. 29, 2006. A World War II veteran, he served in the U.S. Army in the southwest Pacific Theater, a part of the Amphibian Tractor Battalion. Survivors include his wife, Joan; a daughter, Karen Metz '88 and grandson, J. Scott Metz '99.

1950s

Ethel Gillig '50 died Sept. 20, 2006. A retired educator, she served as director of Christian education at many Methodist churches in the area, including First United Methodist Church in Salina, East Heights United Methodist Church in Wichita, and First United Methodist Church in Arkansas City.

1960s

JoAnn (Jones) Green '61 died March 15, 2006. Survivors include her husband, Lloyd.

Joe Fry '63 died Oct. 4, 2006. He was a retired educator for USD 259 in Wichita. Survivors include his wife, Marilou (Hawthorne) '67.

Linda (Graber) Smith '65 died July 25, 2006, due to a vehicle accident. Linda worked at Rubbermaid in Winfield for a number of years and also at the Winfield State Hospital and Training Center.

Francis "Butch" Glenn '67, died Aug. 9, 2006. Glenn served in the National Guard for six years. He worked in management and sales for many years before becoming a ranger at Camp Kanza. Survivors include his daughter Tamis, mother Leona, sister Repha Buckman '70, and brother Jeff '78 (see below).

Jeanne DeMoss-Wright '68 died Aug. 3, 2006, at the age of 88. Survivors include her husband, Albert.

Hilda (Haack) Fraser '69 died Sept. 23, 2006. She was a retired medical technologist and manager of Critical Care Lab at Wesley Medical Center in Wichita. Survivors include her husband, Elmore.

1970s

Jeffery Glenn '78 died Sept. 24, 2006. Jeff owned and operated Glenco Home Electronics, a custom installation business, from 1990-2005. In 2005 he joined the staff of Central Christian Church as small groups director. Jeff was officially ordained in the ministry on Sept. 3, 2006. Survivors include his wife, Claudette; mother, Leona Glenn; and a sister, Repha Buckman '70.

1980s

Raul Arturo Mendoza '82 died Sept. 25, 2006.

FACULTY DEATH

James E. Kelly died July 16, 2006. James was an adjunct instructor for SC Professional Studies in Wichita.

It's not too late to submit your nominations for the upcoming Halls of Fame (Business, Scholars, and Education) that will be held during Founders Day weekend on April 14, 2007.

Forms may be obtained by calling Susan Lowe (800) 846-1543, ext. 6334, or submitted via the alumni Web site.

SC ACHIEVEMENTS

Christopher Caldwell, assistant professor of philosophy, presented "Basic Ethical Principles: Content and Significance" at the Sept. 22 fall workshop of Kansas Health Ethics, Inc.

Delilah Caldwell, librarian for SC Memorial Library, presented invited comments on "The Epistemic Role of Non-Experiential Looks" by Michael Hartsock and Justin McBrayer at the Mountain-Plains Philosophy Conference at Washburn University in September 2006.

Bill DeArmond, professor of mass communications and film, is author of the poem "The Prisoner" that was published in the 4th edition of the Meridian Anthology of Contemporary Poetry. The anthology is listed by Poet's Market as a first-tier publication. DeArmond's story, "Just a Stranger on a Bus," has been accepted by Trial of Indiscretion of Camp Hill, Penn., for a future issue. DeArmond received a third place award at the Kansas Writers Association Scene of the Crime Conference Short Story competition for his work "The Phantom at the Bottom of the Well." His story "Simon's Last Trick" appears in the November issue of Children, Churches and Daddies. The same story will be anthologized in the book Writings to Honor and Cherish to be released by Scars Publications.

David Gardner, assistant professor of music and director of choirs, is author of a feature article in the fall edition of the Choral Range, the Kansas Choral Directors Association newsletter. The article is titled "Choral Blend (n.)"

Brenda Hicks, director of financial aid, is committee chair for planning Summer Institute 2007 for the RMASFAA (Rocky Mountain Association of Financial Aid Administrators) organization. This week-long event provides training for financial aid professionals in the Rocky Mountain region (Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, North/South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, and Utah).

Cheryl Rude, assistant professor of leadership studies, was featured speaker at the Women's Health and Community Wellness Conference Oct. 27 in Tribune. She presented sessions on adult and youth collaboration and on youth leadership development.

Jane Schlickau, professor of nursing, presented her research "Promotion of Breastfeeding Among Immigrant Hispanic Women" at the Transcultural Nursing Society Convention Nov. 5 in Baltimore. Jane received the Leader of Leaders Award presented to outstanding nursing student advisors at the Kansas Association of Nursing Student Convention on Oct. 27.

Beth Sheppard, Memorial Library librarian, is author of a chapter in a recently-published book, New Currents Through John. The chapter is titled "Another Look: Johannine 'Subordinationist Christology' and the Roman Family." The book is edited by Thomas Thatcher and Francisco Lozada and was published by the Scholars Press, the publishing house of the Society of Biblical Literature, the professional organization for Biblical scholars.

Stacy Sparks, assistant professor of journalism, accompanied seven students to the National College Media Convention in St. Louis Oct. 25-29. The SC students attended sessions covering broadcast, design, editing, ethics, online, photography, and writing. Sparks will begin a term as vice-chair of the College Media Advisers photojournalism committee beginning in October 2007. Sparks was one of three photography advisers who provided feedback for students during a portfolio review session.

Seven SC communication students attended the National College Media Convention in St. Louis Oct. 25-29. Shown (front, l. to r.) are Susan Loveall, Tara Pagenkopf, Ashley Holloway; (back) Nate Jones, Tommy Castor, Scott Nuss, and Monica Springer. In addition to professional sessions, the students visited the Arch and Union Station and were in St. Louis when the Cardinals won the World Series.

What's new with you?

Name	Class Year
Street Address	P.O. Box
City	State	Zip Code
Phone Number

Here's something new in my life: (job, address, marriage, baby, etc.)

Here's a student who may be interested in SC: (please fill in all information you know)

Name	Year of Graduation
Street Address	P.O. Box
City	State	Zip Code
Parents' Names	Phone Number
E-mail Address (if you know it)	High School/College
Relationship to you (daughter, friend, nephew, etc.)
Any special interests you know of?		