Would you convict George Washington?

1980 Moundbuilder

Suppose the American Revolution had turned out differently and George Washington had been sent to London and tried for treason? That was the interesting question and supposition tackled in an unusual manner by students of Dr. Jane Flavin's "Teaching Social Science in the Elementary Schools" class at SC. To set the right mood, the students even dressed the part. There was George Washington (played by Julie White) and even Thomas Paine (Kerri Hall) as well as an assortment of judges and prosecuting attorneys.

SC History In These Hands

The members of the Moundbuilder staff are the historians of Southwestern College student life. The staff tried valiantly to record for posterity what it was like to be a student at Southwestern College in 1989-1990. Being at the right place for that special photo became a challenge. Learning to produce an entire book in two semesters means working together and blending ideas. What better preparation for the rest of your life!

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Queen

The traditional Homecoming Queen candidates are nominated by organizations on campus. Those nominated must be junior or senior women. The field of candidates is narrowed to five by vote of athletes involved in fall sports. The student body chooses the Homecoming Queen from the finalists. The remaining finalists serve as the Queen's Court during the Homecoming celebration. The 1989 Homecoming Queen was Wendy Dolsen.

Pi Delta Sigma is a social group that is open to both men and women. At the beginning of this year, there were only four active members. Due to a large number of pledges, they have resurrected the group's lengthy tradition on the Southwestern campus. This year's executive officers were Mark Detter, president; Timothy Best, vice-president; Wendy Steiner, secretary/treasurer; and Tony Soares, pledge master.

Homecoming activities included the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and the Ugly Man contest. There was also the traditional football game and the play Grease was presented. During this week of activities the Ugly Man contest was held. The candidates for this were, Joe Luinstra of Augusta, KS; Leroy Worley of Bristol, VA; Tim Hollingsworth of Arkansas City, KS; Tim Ervin of Topeka, KS and Danny Lara of Augusta, KS. The winner of the contest was Joe Luinstra. The Homecoming court of 1989 consisted of Lisa Pickle of Cimarron, KS and her escort Sean Forehand of St. Petersburg, FL; Jana Gaston of Houston, TX and her escort Greg Peoples of Dallas, TX; Wendy Dolsen of Pueblo, CO and her escort Neal Bass of Lakeland, FL; Kristi Hillman of Cheney, KS and her escort Marc Needham of Cheney, KS; and Aretha McCraw of Wichita, KS and her escort Donald Stroy of Columbus, GA. Wendy Dolsen was chosen Queen at the crowning ceremonies.

Southwestern had one of its most successful seasons ever during 1989-1990. The squad brought home over thirty awards and finished among the top schools in the nation. During the course of the year, the squad travelled to eighteen tournaments and won nearly two hundred total rounds. Competition included UCLA, Arizona State, Cornell, Vanderbilt, Rice, William and Mary, Kansas State, Southern Illinois, the U.S. Air Force Academy and well over other hundred other schools. The season ended with two Southwestern teams finishing successfully at nationals. The combination of Rick Liby and Scott Hecht tied for seventh, and the team of Carson Brackney and John Jaster tied for sixth. Squad members included Rick Liby (Senior), Scott Hecht (Senior), John Jaster (Senior), Carson Brackney (Freshman), Carmen Hopkins (Sophomore), Jennifer Barnes (Sophomore) and Christa Pickens (Freshman). Coach Jennifer Morgan summarized the season as "a remarkably successful year." She commented that "Southwestern was able to consistently rank among the nation's best and bring home at least one trophy from every tournament we competed at."

CCOM

Campus Council on Ministries

The Campus Council on Ministries is a body of students, faculty and staff persons that develop religious programs for the total Southeastern College campus. The group oversees chapel, three endowed lectures (Beck, Smith-Wilson and Parkhurst), Bible studies, religious music concerts and facilitates the functioning of all religious groups on campus. It is related to the Student Life Committee. Story by John Paulin, Chaplain.

Beta Beta Beta is a national honor society for students of the biological sciences. The goal of Tri-Beta is to encourage both majors and non-majors alike to pursue and cultivate intellectual interest in the natural sciences and to promote a better appreciation of the value of biological study. Each year Tri-Beta sponsors different activities in which students of various fields of study can participate. The most notable activity is the annual Red Cross Blood Drive. This year other events sponsored by Tri-Beta included a fish seining trip and a tree planting project for Earth Day. Officers for the 1989-1990 school year were Donna Banowetz, president; Hector Rios, vice-president; Stan Bowling, secretary; Joe Luinstra, treasurer; and Tracy Horst, historian.

The officers for the Student Activities Association were Judie Winkler, president, Bryan Dennett, vice-president, Jennifer Barnes, secretary, and Tammy Rector, treasurer. Other vital executive members were Denise Wagner and Kelle Goertz, co-dance chairs; Julie

Winkler, co-dance chair first semester; Thad Leffingwell, co-publicity chair with Bryan Dennett; Kim Fort and Jackie Vickers, co-special activities chairs. SAA organized many activities including free movie night, bowling and skating parties, the roommate game, the 3rd annual talent show, informal dances, and the Spring Formal. Judie said, "Bryan and I have been extremely pleased with the organization this year. We were fortunate to be able to work with such a large number of consistently committed people."

Southwestern College is fortunate to have an outstanding TV and radio program. The small size of the group gives each individual the opportunity to participate in ways that a larger organization would not allow. Each member of the radio staff broadcasts 3 hours an afternoon spinning new hit records, as well as oldies for SC and the community. KSWC, 100.3, is a ten watt station serving the immediate area. SCTV gives enrolled students the chance to participate in a bi-weekly production. The show airs on Winfield Cable 13, Fridays at 6:00 p.m. and is repeated again on Saturdays at 10:00 a.m. Students are involved in the pre-production side of the show also. After the footage is shot, editing is what makes the show. Viewing the tapes to choose what bits go where is a vital part of the production. Another production, SC Magazine, features videos produced by the Video Production class.

Black Student Union "In Full Effect!"

Soloist Ernest Alexander presented a convocation in honor of Black History Month.

The 1989-90 Black Student Union began the year with a great number of minority students attending the organizational meeting. Some of the activities that BSU have been involved in are participating in the Arkalala Parade, Student Study Nite Session, Black Student Union Choir, and Christmas Caroling with SCSF and the Social Work Club. To end the Fall semester, the first "Jam with BSU" dance was held. When asked what was one of the reasons why BSU remains active, one of the members commented, "With sponsor like Dr. Janice-Marie McDonald, Dr. Rick Johnson, and Mr. & Mrs. William Brooks displaying positive attitudes and inspiration, you can't help but have the eagerness to excel." The Black Student Union has new ideas for the Spring semester. Willie Coleman, President, commented that he would like non-members as well as non-active members to recognize the organization more positively and seriously. He reminds other students that the organization is open to anyone interested in BSU. By working together, we can become more familiar with differences and look at them in a positive manner. The executive committee consisted of Willie Coleman, President; Donald Stroy, Vice-president; Jana Gaston, Secretary; and Dianne Roberson, Treasurer. Other officers were Nichole Sheridan, SGA Rep.; Rodney James, SAA Rep.; Fawn Anderson, Off-campus Rep.; Andrea Linscheid and Janelle Calhoun, Publicity.

Phi Beta Lambda

φ β λ

SC's chapter of Phi Beta Lambda had a very encouraging year. At the PBL State Conference in Lawrence, SC showed that it was one of the top business schools in the state. Cary Stamps received recognition in Who's Who in Kansas PBL. Jerald Betts took second place in Accounting 2, second place in Impromptu Speaking, and second place in Information Management. Jan Palmer placed first in Impromptu Speaking. Heather Hampton received first place in Ms. Future Business Teacher. Tim Hollingsworth took second in Business Communications while Trent Houlden captured third place in the Business Law competition. The students that qualified for nationals are: Jerald Betts, Jan Palmer, and Heather Hampton. The officers for the 1989-90 school year were: Jerald Betts, president; Jan Palmer, vice-president; and Cary Stamps, secretary/treasurer.

The Social Work Club is a service organization, giving students an opportunity to serve the community. The major service project for the group this year was the drive for essential items for Safe Homes of Cowley County. Items, ranging from food to furniture, were collected all over campus and given to the shelters. This active group was led by Pam Mason as President. Pat Sloop and Cathy Lewandowski were the sponsors. The group is open to any student interested in community service.

3rd Annual Talent Show

SAA held the 3rd Annual Talent Show on Friday, March 23, in Richardson Auditorium. Eight acts were judged by a panel of six judges, three male and three female. The judging was based on the following criteria: stage presence, appearance, quality of performance and audience approval. At the end of the evening, the MC's, Mikel and Jeanne Dexter, announced the winners. First place, with a $100 cash prize, went to "Walk Away," the duo of Tim Hollingsworth and Trevor Leffingwell, for their vocal solos with electric bass guitar and synthesizer accompaniment. The second place prize of $75, went to the comedy routine, "Kiss-A-Pig." Members of this act were Kim Fort, Amy Conklin, Jenni Sturgis, Tracy Wiechman and Kristi LeBlanc. The $50 prize was split in a tie between Mitch Todd and Rodney James for their vocal solos. The evening was a success thanks to SAA and its special activities committee.

Sigma Iota Sigma is the all female social sorority on Southwestern's campus. 1989 is a very special year for SIS-- it is the celebration of 10 great years of the sorority! SIS was started in the spring of 1979, and has since started many continuing traditions. For Homecoming, SIS had an "Alumni Tea" to welcome its returning members. In December, SIS sponsors the semi-formal Christmas dance, with a new theme each year, this year's theme being "A Mystical Sleigh Ride." Recruitment of new members is ongoing, with several "pledge parties," with an important one being the "Pink Party."

SIS is not only for social purposes, though. One pride of the organization is the service to the community. This year, SIS chose Christmas carolling for donations of food products for those in need, as a major community service. For the 1989-1990 year, the presiding officers include, Jackie Vickers as President, Judie Winkler as Vice President, Jan Palmer as Secretary, Jennifer Barnes as Treasurer, Kim Fort and Denise Wagner as Publicists, and Tammy Rector and Jenni Sturgis as Historians. Every member has an important role in SIS, and SIS is proud to be a part of Southwestern College!

Story by Wallace Gray.

Pi Gamma Mu, the International Honor Society in Social Science, enjoys a very active program at Southwestern where it was founded in 1924. Being very active, Kansas Alpha earned a place among seven top chapters in Pi Gamma Mu on the Roll of Distinction. Graduate Agnes Neises, one time chapter president, spoke on campus about her experience as an elementary teacher among the Navajo near Chinle, Arizona. Micki McCorkle, '85, served a 3 year stint as a Mennonite volunteer missionary in Burkino Faso. Micki reported to the chapter on her work in this very poor African country. Fran Broadhurst shared her impressions of Malawi, another poor nation of Africa. Pi Gamma Mu sponsored two campus visits by Dr. Richard Beach, who reported on his interviews of Chinese students at the time of the Tienanmen Square massacre. For Women's History Month, KSU historian Sandra Coyner spoke on the abuse of women worldwide and the steps toward its amelioration. Gala Christmas and spring initiations added 27 new members. Featured speakers were Dean Willoughby on hopes for Israeli-Arab peace; and Pi Gamma Mu lecturer and KU Fulbright scholar Miljenko Covacicek on changes in Yugoslavia, the Eastern block and the Soviet Union. The group's November chapel featured responses to the movie, The Last Temptation of Christ. The organization also sponsored a series of Monday night dialogues with Social Science faculty members on various global topics. The officers were co-presidents Teresa Day and Kimberley Stowell and co-sponsors Drs. Phil Schmidt and Wallace Gray.

Theta Phi Delta

θ

ϕ

δ

The Theta Phi Delta fraternity, in its 24th year, proved to be a strong organization on the Southwestern campus. The Thetas continued their tradition of showing school spirit at various Moundbuilder sporting events. In accordance with Earth Day, the group picked up trash on campus and collected aluminum cans. A new activity was the Valentine's Delivery Service that featured deliveries by Cupid.

Cast and Production Staff

The cast included: Wendy Dolsen, Kelle Goertz, Trevor Houlden, Stuart Graham, Jill Stephens, Marcia Stucky, Denise Wagner, Meg Wilson, Jessica Callison, Kent Bishop, Mitch Todd, Chris Conklin, David Willoughby, Seth Bate, Tim Ervin, Jeana Lewis, Bryan Dennett, Amy Conklin, Tiffany Daniel, Rodger Dundas, Barb Henthorn, Trent Houlden, Timna Joseph, Andrea Linscheid, and Stephanie Wall. Mary Beth Williams, Chad Martin, Tom Hoeffgen, and Matt Bradbury made up the orchestra. The production staff included: Roger Moon, Jamie Schuppener, Lori Moshier, Allyson Moon, Amanda Callison, Jessica Callison, Kerry Menzie, Lael Porter, Paul Brown, Jennifer Knight, Jill Stephens, John Zink, Denise Wagner, Trevor Houlden, Pam Saboe, Chris Conklin, Kent Bishop, Stuart Graham, Barb Henthorn, Lou Tharp, and Amy Henry.

Campus Players, the drama organization, performed the musical "Grease" on November 2, 3, and 4. Rehearsals were held most evenings for six weeks with set, prop, and costume workdays on weekends. In conjunction with the admissions office and Julie Schuler, the dress rehearsal was given for nearly 600 area high school students who were taken on campus tours and served a picnic lunch.

Eagerheart

The morality play, "Eagerheart", has become a beloved tradition at Southwestern College. The season would not seem complete without a nudge to our inner selves about the true meaning of Christmas. The production was directed by Allyson and Roger Moon. The regal costumes and archaic language of the play add to the enjoyment of the performance. The Campus Players again have maintained the excellence we have come to expect of them.

Left: Tim Ervin, Stuart Graham and Lael Porter.

A Visitor From Forest Hills

Director Tim Ervin.

Neil Simon's one act play, A Visitor From Forest Hills, was chosen by Senior Tim Ervin for his directing final. The play is about a reluctant bride on her wedding day and the complications caused by her refusal to come out of the bathroom. The cast included Mitch Todd, Debbie Dove, Jill Stephens and Ron Harrison. John Zink, Lael Porter, Rodger Dundas, Debbie Dove, Tim Ervin, Judie Winkler, Roger Moon, Amanda Callison, Stu Graham, Trevor Houlden, Kent Bishop and Ron Harrison were the production crew. The two performances were presented in April in the Helen Graham Little Theatre.

Shakespeare's

Merchant of Venice

Not "simply an old work about prejudice that used to exist, but a reminder of the need to examine our lives and the prejudice that is in them now." -- Roger Moon

The Campus Players production of "The Merchant of Venice" was performed during the Renaissance fair in May. Allyson Moon directed the classic play. While Shakespeare addressed anti-semitism in this work, the Campus Players added the contemporary slant of racism and sexism to the conflict. Cast members were: Amanda Callison, Lael Porter, Tim Ervin, Stuart Graham, Jill Stephens, Jesical Callison, Nancy Lewandowski, Marcia Stukey, Seth Bate, Kent Bishop, Vicki Schafer, Dawn Vincent, Andrew Castle, Denise Wagner, Trevor Houlden, Cedric Green, Jackie Muller, Mike Roosevelt and Teri Hutchison. Technical duties were performed by cast members and: John Zink, Barb Henthorn, Judie Winkler, Nolin Tonaka, Goeffrey Moon and Roger Moon.

1983 Moundbuilder

Several Builders put Southwestern on the map gaining national recognition. Steve Delano was named All American for superior performances in three sports: he was the Cross Country National Champion, he won Second place in the 3-mile run in Indoor Track, and was the National Champion in the 10,000 meter run in Outdoor Track. Mike Lambing also was All American in three sports: he placed Third in the Cross Country National Championships, he placed second in the mile run in Indoor Track, and he placed Third in the 1500 meter run in the National Outdoor Track Championships.

National News

An American barracks in Beirut, packed with Marines on a peace-keeping mission, is caught unawares by the komakazi impact of a TNT loaded terrorist truck. Two hundred and sixty killed.

KAL Flight 007, bound for Seoul from Alaska, fatally strays into Soviet airspace. All 269 passengers killed when Russians, claiming the plane was on a spy mission, blasted it from the air. Little known is that Geraldo Rivera, now infamous talk show host, was supposed to be on that flight.

What is Pledging?

1984 Moundbuilder

What is pledging? It is fun, hard work and friendship. It is a group of people who want others to be in their group. It is people putting themselves through mild torture because they want to be closer to others. Keeping the fraternity or sorority alive and steering it in its initial direction is a goal which at first is invisible but which becomes the focal point in the eyes of veterans.

National News

1984 fails to be filled with global war and Big Brother's watching, unlike the predictions in the novel of the same name by George Orwell.

Southwestern celebrates centennial

1985 Moundbuilder

The atmosphere of the college in 1985 is one of excitement for our second hundred years. New policies towards admissions being implemented and a renewed vigor toward academic excellence being instilled in students and faculty alike indicate our new direction. Dr. Blake summed it up when he suggested that we are now looking at an institution that will last forever.

That was the word that described the 1986-87 Debate team. With a squad that consisted largely of freshmen, Southwestern was well represented on a national level. "We're the smallest school in the country with a debate team, and we beat the big schools," said coach Richard O'Dor.

The Cross Country Team Is Unbeatable!

The Southwestern men's and women's teams have lived up to their name as being the best team in Kansas. The men's team is currently ranked 7th in the nation and is undefeated against NAIA schools. Southwestern is 42-5 overall and is 35 wins 0 losses against NAIA schools. They won their 5th district 10 championship out of the last 6 years. It has been 6 years in a row that the Builders have been ranked in the top ten in the nation. The Builders so dominate the KCAC, that they have won 10 straight KCAC crowns. The women won their third conference title in a row and their 6th in the past 7 years.

The job Coach Helmer has done here, is truly amazing and outstanding. We think he is truly one of the best coaches in America. He gets the most out of his athletes and makes them want to go the distance.

The Men's All District Team:

Hector Rios Troy Scarlett
John Kriegish Danny Lara
Travis Jordan John Cleary

The Women's All District Team:

Brenda Starks
Jody Watkins

Coach Helmer had some closing words on this season: "We had our goal at the start of the year, which was to win the Conference, District 10, and finish in the top 10 in the nation and to improve from week to week. I feel good about what the team has accomplished and it has been another great year!"

Volleyball

Lady Builders Improve

The Southwestern Women's volleyball team had a better year than last, going 11-24 overall and 4-14 in the KCAC. Janell Calhoun was named first team All Conference. Shelly Leach, Sherry Leach and Bridget Weybrew were named Honorable Mention All Conference. The Lady Builders finished third out of eight teams in the Missouri Southern Tourney. They finished eighth out of 22 teams at the Graceland Tournament and they finished 8th in the KCAC. Coach Kaifes, when asked about the year, said, "I was very happy with how the season went. We did have some crucial injuries to two key players in the beginning of the season. It hurt our numbers and affected us mentally. I was happy that we finished the season by beating Bethany College for the first time in 5 years, maybe even more! I'm really looking forward to next year. People will be a year older and new people will be key factors in our program."

SC Golf

The Southwestern men's golf team placed third in three tournaments, second in two tournaments, and first in two tournaments. The season's highlight was winning the KCAC championship with a record setting team score of 301 in the second day of the two-day tournament. Russell Carlson and Jay Haffner captured the two top medalist spots. Freshmen Andy Stephens and Kip Haffner finished in the top ten at the KCAC meet to earn Honorable Mention All-KCAC honors. Sophomores Thad Leffingwell and freshman Jason Gulley rounded out the team. Leffingwell earned Academic All-KCAC honors while Jason Gulley was sidelined throughout the season with a hand injury.

The Athletic Trainer

Sweaty feet, ugly feet, crooked toes, hairy legs, little ankles, little wrists, big wrists, bumps and bruises..... that's what the athletic trainers deal with every day in the training room. Before and after practice and for every game, someone (or someones) tapes and wraps the SC athletes. Daily treatments are available for the injured, such as ice, ultra-sound, heat and interferential. And humor definitely runs rampant or one does not survive the hundreds of athletes, or so-called athletes, that seem to come through the door. By Shay Jewett.

The 1989 Moundbuilder football team met formidable foes in St. Mary of the Plains and Bethany. In spite of this caliber opposition, the Builder defense led the team to a 7-2 KCAC record and a 7-3 over all record. The defense held their opponents to under 13 points a game, giving up only 120.7 yards per game on the ground and 131.3 through the air, while causing over 4 turnovers per game. Gerald Peters led the defense and was voted to the first team All-KCAC. Rodney Miller, O'Dell Thomas, Bari Williams and Lawrence Fields were all chosen for the second team All-KCAC. Ronald Robinson and Bobby Urrutia were named honorable mention All-KCAC. The 1989 offense lacked strength but Jerrold Thomas did a solid job as quarterback. Fred Green had an excellent year, rushing for nearly 600 yards. Dan Merritt and Victor Urieta were chosen first team All-KCAC, with Fred Green, J. T. Thompson, and Greg Peoples chosen for the second team All-KCAC. Jerrold Thomas was named honorable mention All-KCAC.

The Southwestern Moundbuilder Men's Basketball Team wrapped up the '89-'90 season with a KCAC record of 8-10 and an 11-15 record overall. The team suffered an unfortunate loss when senior, All-KCAC center Graham Frazier fractured a foot bone in the January 10 game against McPherson College. Frazier, the team's high scorer with a 15.4 point average, was sidelined for the remainder of the season.

Other high scorers were sophomore, Erik King; and juniors, Rodney Slack and Randy Barber. Barber also led the Moundbuilders with the highest free-throw percentage and number of blocked shots. Junior John Claiborne held the season record in number of steals and assists, while Scott Bugbee had the highest three-point field goal percentage.

When asked what her biggest accomplishment at Southwestern was, Coach Carrie Kaifes replied, "My biggest accomplishment is to make it up for my eight o'clock classes, and to create a positive influence to the women's athletics."

The Lady Builders finished the 89-90 basketball season with an overall record of 8-17, and a conference record of 6-12. Sheli Simunek was high-scorer of 14 games, at which she racked up a total of 304 points. The season's second-highest scorer was Julie Arterburn, with a total of 86 points in five games. Other high-scorers (in descending order) were: Lisa Pickle, Janell Calhoun, Traci Henley, Trinette Caughman, Holly Vonderhoe, and Shelly Leach. Shelly Leach was the highest rebounder of the season bringing down 124 in 13 games. Julie Arterburn, however, finished a close second rebounding 117 in 11 games. Other Lady Builder high rebounders (in descending order) were: Holly Vonderhoe, Lisa Pickle, Trinette Caughman, Janell Calhoun, Sherry Leach, and Morgan Marshall. Junior Sheli Simunek was named First Team all KCAC for the 89-90 basketball season.

Under the leadership of Jim Helmer, KCAC men's and women's cross country coach of the year, NAIA District 10 men's cross country coach of the year, KCAC and NAIA District 10 track men's coach of the year, the tradition of Southwestern track has gone to new heights. Michelle Lance has become the Builders first female All-American. Along with the men's 8th consecutive KCAC title, the men have begun a string of NAIA District 10 titles. No longer is it just the KCAC who is intimidated by the Builders, the whole district doesn't know what to do about Jim Helmer and his "Purple" athletes. The KCAC has called the Builders the team of the 80's and the NAIA District 10 better be prepared to call the Builders the team of the 90's. For both indoor and outdoor track, the Builders broke over 75 personal records, 26 school records, 2 KCAC records, and 3 NAIA District 10 records. The Builder's tradition of All-KCAC, All-District 10, All-American, and KCAC & NAIA District 10 Champions has also reached new heights. All totalled, there were 28 All-KCAC athletes, 17 All-District 10 athletes, and 3 All-American athletes. Out of these, 17 were KCAC champions in their events, and 10 were NAIA District 10 champions. The Builders also display an excellence in the classroom. There were 10 Academic All-KCAC athletes on the team and 1 Academic All-American. Fourteen men and four women competed at the NAIA outdoor national meet in May. Story by Leroy Worley.

The 1990 Men's Tennis team, coached by Cecil Findley and George Gangwere, had an active and exciting season. In the regular season the group won over Friends, Ottawa, McPherson and Tabor. In the loss column were matches with Bethany, Bethel and Sterling. In the conference tournament, the team tied for 5th place with Tabor. Team members included (by ranking): Dave Cauble, Charles Rowley, Jason Brown, Stan Bowling, Dirk Fowler, and Brian Strohl. Gregg Huggins was the 7th team member and the alternate.

SC Spirit Squad

Keeping the Spirit Alive

Spirit Squad, Cheerleaders, Yell Leaders. The names spell glamour. A group of SC students can give you a different picture. Daily practices of push-ups, muscle building, cheering, chanting, dancing, etc. make the final performance look effortless. The 1989-90 Spirit Squad hosted a Cheerleading Camp on campus in June for area high schools. The group cheered home and away football games and gave half-time shows at the home games. They also aided the Athletic Department in giveaways during the football season. Basketball season found the squad performing again. Yell leaders Robin Jenkins, Phil Moorhouse, Dave Willoughby and Paul Brown were added for the basketball season. Lori Moshier sponsored the squad.

Broadhurst

Into The '90s

In October 1989, the Board of Trustees of Southwestern College voted to begin the renovation of Broadhurst Hall. Nine months and close to $1,000,000 later, Broadhurst became an elite dormitory with the features of an ideal place to live. The pictures on this page represent the transformation the building went through during the school year.

Renaissance Fair Makes Comeback

As part of the Winfield community's Kanza Days celebration, Southwestern College revived the Renaissance Fair. Highlights of the days were performances by the Campus Players of Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice"; a chess game with live humans as the pawns; a roast pig; storytelling and hunting for a hidden chalice. The weather cooperated, making a pleasant day for those attending.

Thirteen Arrested in Revolt

1989 Heapbuilder

A secret junta, meeting in a hidden Cave, was discovered making plans to take over Southwestern College. Other arrests are expected as the group is interrogated individually. It is expected that most will squeal loud and long. It was not determined what the group planned to do with the college once it gained control, but it is rumored to have something to do with personal gain.

Ed Foster Donates Darkroom Equipment

Special thanks to Ed Foster for seven years of use of his darkroom and darkroom equipment. Another big thank you to Ed for donating the equipment for our use in the future. His generosity insures the continued success of the Moundbuilder!

Eagle-Eye Kehres Assures Quality

Special thanks to Karen Kehres. Her eagle eye and sense of balance help make the book one in which we can take pride.

Crowell Is Published

Karen Crowell is to be commended for taking raw data and composing incredible stories for the Moundbuilder. She will go far as a writer of fiction.

President Martin Takes Interest in Photography

Thanks to President Carl Martin for taking interest in the quality of our pictures. The Polaroid Mini-Portrait camera gives us beautiful mugs.

Groups Cooperate, Students Pose

Thanks to all the groups that were cooperative about pictures and stories. Thanks to all those students who were photographed, willing and unwilling. Without photos, we have no book!

Randi Jennings Is Special

LaRanda Jennings is a special person in many ways. She is funny, talented, smart and shy. She is special here because her picture fits this space.

Thank God For Stephanie

Here's a little ditty,
We thought of just for you.
If you hadn't taken pity,
We surely would be through.
When others had quit trying,
When the burden seemed too much
The book seemed to be dying,
You brought your magic touch.
You slaved to meet the deadlines,
Your photos were beyond compare,
You got us through the rough times
Thank God you were there!

by Vicki Shafer, Karen Kehres and Kathy Wilgers
