Staff

Karen Crowell Clum.....Editor

Ruel Reyes.....Distribution Manager

Anthony Jennings...Advertising Manager

Kathy Wilgers.....Adviser

The Southwestern Collegian was revived in the fall to be a dependable means of campus communication. Karen Clum became the Collegian editor with Kathy Wilgers as sponsor. Columns were written by Jeanne Dexter, Cecil Findley, Cindy Groene, Mitch Todd, and Bryan Dennett. Other staff members were: Ruel Reyes, Marilyn Webb, Gabriel Rico, Don Gifford, Leigh Ann Smith, Deanna Shafer, and Stacy Wilson,.

Through a Women's Scholarship Grant awarded to Southwestern College in 1989, Cathy Lewandowski conducted a seminar on sexual harassment called "Don't Call Me Honey." Lewandowski conducted seminars similar to this while she was in the military and at various businesses. The seminar was well attended by both males and females, students and faculty. Those attending came away with a better understanding of sexual harassment and the legal ramifications of it.

Pi Gamma Mu

PI GAMMA MU BREAKS RECORD

In 1990-91, the Kansas Alpha Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu tapped 48 new Members. This is a record for one year and brought the total membership of the chapter, since it began in 1924, to 1,000.

Highlights of the year included two initiation banquets and programs given by Keith Chuvala on Chile, the Don Andersons on Liberia, and Dean Willoughby on the Middle East.

Upon the resignation of the president, co-vice-presidents Marion Askrens and Caren Prochaska assumed primary leadership roles. Faculty officers were Dr. Phil Schmidt and Dr. Wallace Gray.

If you are reading this, you are witnessing the work of the Moundbuilder staff. Editor, Stephanie Wall, and co-editors, Julie Underwood and Amy Graves developed and set-up the format early in the year with Kathy Wilgers, yearbook adviser, and the Jostens representative.

A year on the Moundbuilder staff includes: taking, developing, and printing pictures in the "dungeon" or basement of Darbeth; struggling to match names, faces, home towns, and classification; tracking down athletic event statistics; and meeting every deadline. Evident from the photos, the staff has fun, learns a lot, and gets the job done.

Cultural Arts

The Cultural Arts program at Southwestern provides a variety of cultural events for students, faculty and the Winfield community. In addition to the events represented on these pages, other performances included pianist Kevin Kenor and Lionel Hampton and his band. The diversity of programs gives students the opportunity to be exposed to new and/or different cultural experiences.

The Black Student Union of Southwestern College is an organization pledged to foster understanding of cultural and racial diversity. Dianne Roberson was elected to lead the group as president. To celebrate Martin Luther King's birthday in January, BSU joined with the Civil Right Class in a peaceful march to the Cowley County Court House. Upon arrival at the Court House, Rodney James read King's letter from the Birmingham jail. About fifty people participated in the march, carrying signs urging the United States not to start a war in the Persian Gulf. Especially active during Black History Month, the group had a full schedule of activities, ranging from a Gospel Fest to the performance of an original play by student Randi Jennings.

Executive officers were Trevor Leffingwell, president; Danny Lara, vice-president; Jennifer Barnes, secretary; Stephanie Wall, treasurer; Thad Leffingwell, attorney general; and Kristy Hillman, student representative to the Board of Trustees.

Senate members included class presidents, dorm, off-campus, minority, and at-large representatives. SGA sponsors were Terry Barnett, Roger Moon, Charlie Hunter, and Steve Wilke. The year began with a retreat at Camp Horizon for officers and sponsors. The annual Moundbuilding Ceremony, organized by SGA, was held on August 30, 1990. Senate members also helped with homecoming elections and events. Other projects taken on by the senate were: renovation plans for the Mound, purchase of fifteen dorm refrigerators for student rental, purchase of a computer monitor and hard-drive for the SGA office, and improved campus lighting.

Future Educators of America is a newly formed education club which is open to all education majors. FEA has sponsored a variety of events. In March, first and second year teachers came to talk to us about what to expect the first years of teaching. In April, a tea was given to recognize student teachers and their cooperating teachers for their good work. The theme of the tea was "Teachers shape the world one child at a time." To end the year, FEA members got to show off their family members during a picnic at Aaron Wise's farm. Overall, the club has been successful and next year's officers are looking forward to continuing the trend.

Southwestern debate ended the year with over 100 wins and numerous other honors including three successful national tournaments. Coach Jennifer Morgan calls the season "a great success for Southwestern College and the debaters, too."

The team of Carson Brackney and Chad Leonard placed in each tournament they competed in, ranging from 3 first places to 2 ninth places. The same team took second place in the Junior Nationals, the highest finish a Southwestern team has ever placed. At the Pi Kappa Delta Nationals held in New Jersey, Leonard and Brackney were ranked third.

Carmen Hopkins and Paul McDonald teamed up second semester, placing third at the Southwest Texas State meet. This team also competed in a number of other meets.

Southwestern managed its wins against schools like U.C.L.A., Kansas State, William and Mary, Vanderbilt, Columbia, Arizona State, the United States Air Force Academy, the University of Oregon, and other similar schools. According to coach Morgan, "Chad and Carson are both returning to debate next year, as may Carmen. Plus, there are a lot of good debaters that are planning on attending S.C. next year, so the future looks even brighter."

Phi Beta Lambda

Phi Beta Lambda started out the year by judging the annual Spook Parade at Halloween. The group sponsored "Mums for Moms" and buttons for Parents Weekend. A trip to Kansas City was a highlight as members attended the Leadership Conference. Workshops on stress, job interviewing, and how to dress for success were presented. April 3, 4, and 5 marked the State Competition, where several members qualified for the National competition in Anaheim, California. Sponsoring PBL Days on KSOK radio station, several local businesses were visited, ads were sold, and presented on the radio.

The A Capella Choir rehearsed diligently throughout the year. Dr. James Strand directed the group in place of James Schuppener, who was on sabbatical for his doctorate. Tim Shook was assistant director and accompanist. The choir performed at various campus events, and toured Colorado in April. While on tour, they gave performances at Ft. Lyon, Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Woodland Park, and Wheat Ridge. Choir members also enjoyed a day of skiing at Winter Park Ski Resort.

The Gospel Singers were made up of any students interested in singing gospel songs. Roxie Callison directed and sang in the group. Marsha Redmond accompanied and also directed.

Pep band performed at various campus activities and sports events. It was sponsored by Julie Schuler and directed by Dr. David Mathie.

The Lady Builders finished the year off with a big win against Ottawa at The District 10 Volleyball tournament. The team felt this game as such an inspirational win due to the fact that they had been defeated by Ottawa twice in pre-tournament play. The Builders finished the tournament tied for fifth place with Baker University, a nice closing position considering that they were ranked seventh when the tournament began.

Coach Kaifes commented, "The season ended on a positive note."

Other team members shared this same feeling. Janell Calhoun, an All-Kansas Collegiated Athletic Conference Selection, said that she thought the season went well and was probably a personal best for her. Good Job Ladies!

The 1990 Cross Country season is history. We will remember it as one of our most enjoyable and gratifying for both the men's and women's teams.

Our men accomplished every team goal we established at the beginning of the season and probably came farther from where we started to accomplish those goals than any team. We had to have a number of things fall into place exactly as planned in order to get it done and that is exactly what happened. Our goals were to win the KCAC Conference, the District 10 championships, and finish in the top 10 in the National meet. We won our second straight NAIA District 10 title (6th in the last 7 years). We then won our 11th straight conference championship. We finished the season with a gratifying 9th place finish in the National meet. We came on strong when it counted, winning our last four meets leading into the National Championships.

Our women's team goals were to win the conference and finish in the top 3 in the District 10. We achieved one of those goals, placing 3rd in the district meet, but fell just short of the other when we finished 2nd by 1 point in the KCAC Conference. In spite of having only 5 women, we progressed well and felt the season was very successful.

Cheerleaders

Making the right moves

The 1990-1991 Spirit Squad has had many changes toward improvement during this year. The squad's new sponsor, Laura Peterson, has contributed many hours of hard work and dedication to make the program a success.

Cheerleading is more than just yelling, jumping and performing stunts. The fall Squad support the football team by cheering at away games, as well as those played at home. Making banners and holding raffles required a lot of time, creativity, and work.

During basketball season, the squad had some new faces, new ideas, and new stunts. A team of strong young men were added to work with the cheerleaders throughout the season. Rachelle Johnson, Robin Jenkins, Paul Brown, and Phil Moorhouse returned, giving leadership and continuity to the squad.

Southwestern Athletic Trainers

OK, so you hear about trainers. What do they do? Oh, they just tape wrists and ankles. Right? Wrong. Let's face it, how many of you out there know what an ortho wedge is? How about a Plantar-Fascia Strap? Well, most of us sure don't. The trainers at SC have to know things like this to be as helpful as they can to care for the athletes at Southwestern. The trainers are ready for any situation and always come through. Thanks to you all!

The Moundbuilders finished the 1990 football season with a 6-4 overall record, and a 6-3 record in KCAC competition. The Builders began the season at Sonner Stadium with a 17-6 win over McPherson. Southwestern's defense shut down McPherson, only allowing the Bulldogs 46 yards on 30 carries. O'Dell Thomas was named KCAC defensive player of the week.

In the next game, the builders won 30-22 over Tabor. The offense was lead by quarterback, Jerrold Thomas, who made the KCAC offensive player of the week. Robert "Showtime" Coleman earned "receiver of the week." Lawrence Fields, leading the conference in punt and kickoff returns at the time, busted a long, 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

The Builders lost to Kansas Wesleyan, who were then second in the KCAC. The builders played very inconsistent on both offense and defense, giving the Coyotes their second win at home.

Southwestern lost their second game against non-conference opponent Lindenwood, a NAIA Division II school in Missouri.

The Moundbuilders were victorious over Ottawa 31-23, at Sonner Stadium. Jerrold Thomas and Robert Coleman took Ottawa to school, while hitting the record books themselves.

Southwestern fumbled away its chances as Bethany rumbled past the Moundbuilders 34-7. "We played pretty well for a long time. You can't afford to make that many mistakes offensively. That's just asking too much out of your defense," Coach Cowdrey stated after the game in Lindsborg.

Thomas, a quarterback from Dallas, threw for a school record and two touchdowns, in a come-from-behind homecoming victory. Coleman made several unbelievable catches.

Sterling became the Moundbuilders next victim. The Builders thumped Sterling 42-12. Shawn Rushton lead the defense, making three interceptions, just one short of a Southwestern record held by Tim Cargile, with four interceptions, set in 1980 against Tabor. Alton Guidry and Lawrence Fields each added an interception. Placekicker, Victor Urieta, successfully kicked 6-6 extra points.

Shawn Rushton rewrote school history with a 102-yard interception return to propel Southwestern past Bethel 39-19 in a home game. Teammates Andy Jordan, Ivory Wilson, and Bari Williams added some "firepower" to S.C.'s defense.

In Southwestern's ninth game of the season, the excessively cold, wet weather didn't seem to phase the Builders. Quarterback, Jerrold Thomas, led Southwestern to a 31-7 victory over Friends with a pair of touchdowns. Robert Jewett returned a pass to the Friends University 8-yard line, where the Moundbuilders settled for a field goal by Victor Urieta. Senior safety, Bari Williams, and cornerback, Alton Guidry, each contributed an interception.

St. Mary of the Plains spoiled Southwestern's playoff bid in Dodge City by winning 17-14. "It was a great effort physically," said head coach Charles Cowdrey. "But you can't go into a big football game and throw five interceptions and expect to be successful in the contest."

Southwestern College's offensive lineman, Rodney James, was named to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics NAIA Division II Football All-America second team.

I feel good about this honor. My goal for next year is to be named to the first team!!!
Rodney James

As the situation in the Mid-East intensified, Southwestern students demonstrated their position in a public way. Chris Farmer, pictured below, spent several weeks in his tent pitched in the center of Kirk Drive at the bottom of the 77 steps. During parts of November and December, "Tent City" became locally famous, as other students brought tents to join Chris. Discussions were held late into the night, talking the pros and cons of going to war against Iraq. A number of students participated in peace demonstrations in Winfield, Topeka and other locations. Another part of the campus community was involved in the military side of the question, as members of reserve units. Several students and former students were called to active duty. When the war actually began on January 16, 1991, the entire campus community was glued to televisions and radios. Thankfully, no one from our college community was among the casualties of this brief war.

The Moundbuilding Convocation and Ceremony has been an annual Southwestern tradition since Dean Allen read his famous speech back on Thursday, September 8, 1927. Presiding over the 1990 Moundbuilding Convocation was Trevor Leffingwell, SGA president. Stephanie Wall, SGA treasurer, gave the invocation. President Carl Martin delivered Dean Allen's address. Dr. Bob Wimmer read Dean Haywood's postscript for nearly his twentieth year in a row. The singing of the Alma Mater, accompanied by Dr. James Strand on the organ, concluded the convocation.

Top left: Trevor Leffingwell read about the history of the Pillars of Christy Hall. Bob Logan and Brian Williamson were torch bearers.

Middle right: Danny Lara explained the "Builders Around the World" flags as Terry Barnett acted as the portable sound system.

Ceremony 1990

Following the convocation in Richardson, all Moundbuilders met in the parking lot south of Christy Hall at the "Builders Around the World" monument which held the flags of students from foreign countries. Danny Lara, SGA vice-president, presided over the Moundbuilding Ceremony. Stuart Graham told the history behind the Campus Player's rock. Trevor Leffingwell explained the Pillars of Christy Hall. Thad Leffingwell read the tale of the Jinx. Carmen Hopkins gave a short address about the Debate rock. Dr. Phil Schmidt placed the faculty rock on the mound. The presentation of alumni, class, residence hall, activity, organization, and personal rocks followed. The ceremony closed with a benediction and the playing of Taps.

Southwestern College's Campus Players opened the 1990-1991 season with Steel Magnolias. Directed by Allyson Moon, the play is alternately hilarious and touching — and in the end, deeply revealing of the underlying strength each character provides another. The cast performed for enthusiastic theater-goers during the Homecoming celebration.

Ugly Man Candidates

The 1990 Ugly Man contest was unusually competitive. Although the contest title sounds negative, it is truly an honor to be a candidate. All sophomore, junior, and senior men were eligible for nomination. Campus organizations that nominated candidates were: Phi Beta Lambda-Trent Houlden, Yearbook-Cedric Green, Broadhurst Residence Hall-Neil Bass, Sigma Iota Sigma-Lars Rognlid, and Black Student Union- Rodney James.

Eagerheart has become a holiday tradition at Southwestern. This play urges everyone to remember the real Christmas story and examine the true meaning of the holiday. Keeping the identity of the actress who plays Mary a secret until the night of the show has become traditional. The play was excellently directed by Allyson and Roger Moon. The regal costumes and archaic language added to the realness of the performance.

Courses offered included Rock Music of the 80s, Paint Your Dragon, The Holocaust, Fantastic Television, and many others.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN

Lorraine Hansberry wrote "A Raisin In The Sun," taking it's title from Langston Hughes' poem, "A Dream Deferred." The drama department of Southwestern College presented the play as the spring offering.

A Dream Deferred

What happens to a dream deferred?

Does it dry up

Like a raisin in the sun?

Or fester like a sore--

And then run?

Does it stink like rotten meat?

or crust and sugar over--

Like a syrupy sweet?

Maybe it just sags

Like a heavy load.

Or does it explode?

--Langston Hughes
