Volume 101

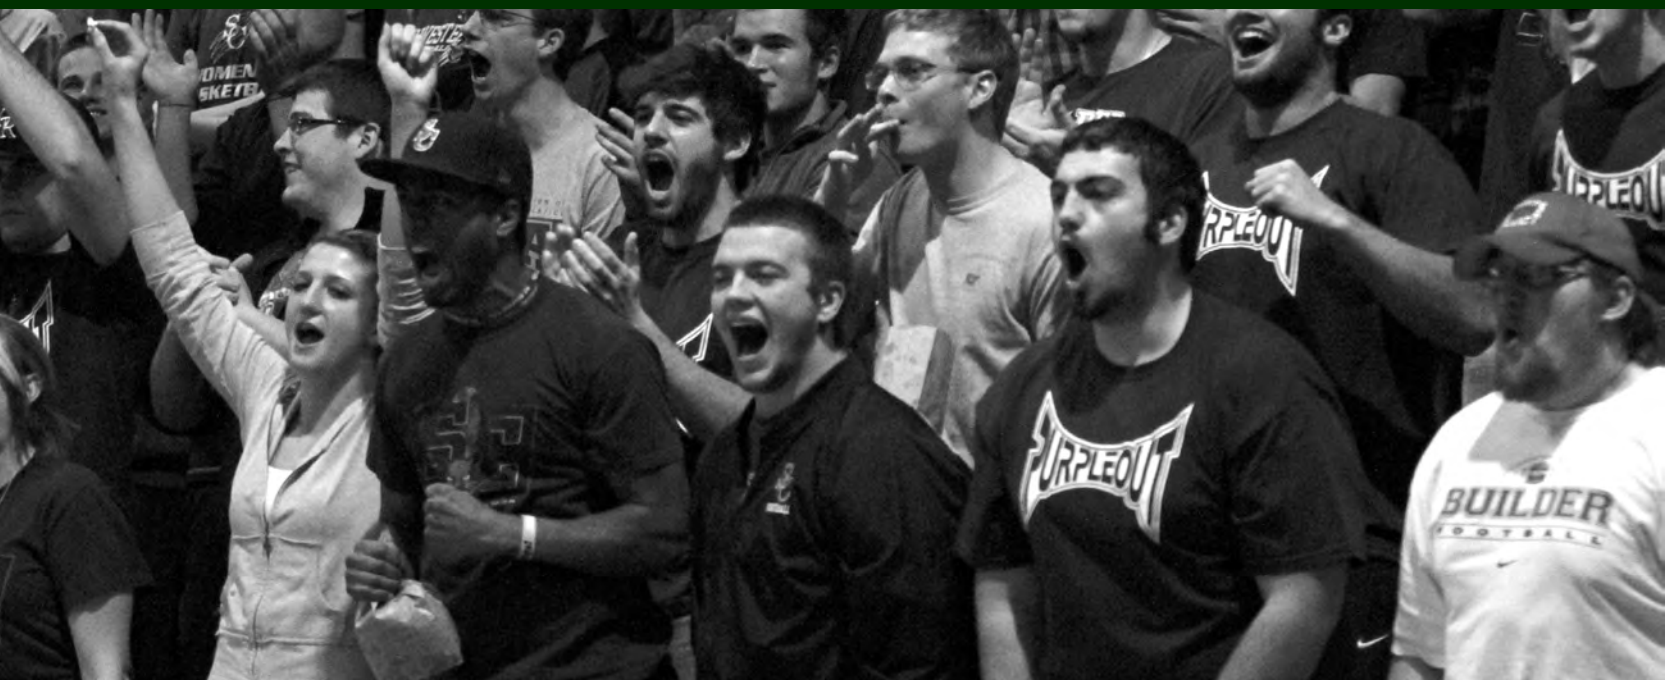

Southwestern College

Winfield, Kansas 67156

August 2011 to May 2012

We value tradition. We avoid the Jinx on the 77 Steps. We begin each school year by piling rocks on a Mound. We celebrate the magic of Christmas with “Eagerheart.” We chant the fight song after a victory. We understand sacrifices during renovation. After enduring months of construction, we enjoy attending concerts, plays and events in the Richardson Performing Arts Center. We appreciate those who support our studies and our lives. We cherish this community. We enjoy the Walnut Valley Festival and Isle of Lights. We welcome the constant support at campus events. We appreciate our customs in a way only Builders can...

We share memories from this year. We have memories like no one else. We remember Builder Camp when we bonded over a campfire, chanted our team pride and bragged about our winnings at Builder Camp Olympics. We remember Homecoming and all the one-of-a-kind events: dodgeball competition, goofy skits and the exciting Homecoming game and coronation. We remember Christmas with the beautiful trees decorated by organizations and the fun times during bingo night. We remember Stau Bau where we participated in bongo ball, go-cart racing and silent library. We make memories in a way only Builders can...

We chose Southwestern College. The charm of the small town atmosphere drew us in. We chose the athletic team or the performing arts group or the service organization or the course offerings or the small class sizes. We wanted to be part of the fervent display of school spirit. We saw the person we could become here. Now we realize what makes our experiences so special are the friendships we share with each other. We realize that it wasn't the town, the spirit of competition or the class sizes, but rather the bonds we forged and the person we have grown to be. That is the true reward. Growing into be an individual in a way only Builders can...

Our love for this place makes us who we are. We each have a role in making this place what it is. We join forces with others in our major and across campus to learn and play and support each other. Our love for this place drew us in on our first campus visit. We climb 77 Steps to get to class every day. We belong here. We are part of something bigger than ourselves. With these friends, we place rocks on The Mound each year to represent our goals and tradition. We know our love for this place is so compelling that we will come back for Homecoming as alumni every year. We have a love for our school that only Builders can...

Only

We made it. We made it through 8 a.m. classes and late-night study session. We made it through weeks when we juggled activities with obligations. We made it through endless practices and rehearsals and work sessions. We made it through another school year and we are relieved. We are happy to have accomplished all we did. We are sad to leave campus. We will miss our circle of friends. We will miss how comfortable we felt in this place where we belonged. We all eventually make our way down different paths, but the spirit of Southwestern lives on in each Builder. We leave this school in a way only Builders can...

Moundbuilder 2012

Volume 101

Southwestern College

Winfield, Kansas 67156

August 2011 to May 2012

Volume 101 was created by the Moundbuilder staff and was printed by Jostens in Topeka. The cover was designed by the Moundbuilder staff with assistance from Thane Chastain, Jostens Sales Representative. The 104 pages were created on Dell computers using Microsoft Word, Adobe PhotoShop CS5, and Adobe InDesign CS5. The Moundbuilder is distributed to all full-time students.
