IMPORTANT (PLEASE READ):

If you successfully linked your 2023-2024 FAFSA to the IRS, you do NOT need to submit 2021 taxes with this form. If you did not link your FAFSA to the IRS, you will need to submit a copy of your 2021 tax return as well as Schedules 1-3 (if present). You can order a tax return transcript to download online at www.irs.gov. You may also submit a copy of the tax return you have on file – please make sure you sign it.

A. Family Information

In the table, list the people in your household through July 1, 2023 & June 30, 2024. Include:

- 1) Yourself
- 2) Your parent(s) or spouse
- 3) Siblings/children (If they live with you and/or receive 50% or more of their financial support from you or your parents. Remember to include siblings/children attending college who are less than 24 years of age.)
- 4) Others (If they live with you and/or receive 50% or more of their financial support from you or your parents.)

College: If a person listed will be enrolled in college at least half-time from July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2024, include the name of the college where they attend.
