

SC ACHIEVEMENTS

Richard E. Barnes, associate professor of management and economics, is conducting an Exceptional Customer Service workshop for merchants of Arkansas City. The workshop, sponsored by the Arkansas City Chamber of Commerce, consists of four sessions Feb. 21, March 7, March 21, and April 4.

Mary Bulla, director of Professional Studies academic programs, will become executive director of ANTSHE (Association of Non-Traditional Students in Higher Education) during the ANTSHE annual conference in Augusta, Ga., March 18-20. The group is an international organization designed for adult students who have returned to school and for the professionals that support their educational goals. Bulla previously had been the national conference coordinator.

Steve Drane, coordinator of special programs and training for Professional Studies and SC Online, is serving on the board of directors of the Wichita Manufacturers Association, an organization of management personnel and companies. As director of education, Drane will lead a committee of volunteers within the 600+ member organization.

Kevin Farlow, coordinator of military initiatives for Professional Studies and SC Online, has completed his Certified Protection Professional Certification.

Tracy Frederick, associate professor of speech, is author of a paper accepted for presentation at the Central States Communication Association Convention April 6-10. The paper is titled "A Reluctant Voice: Zu Adams Speaks to The Kansas Women's Press Club April 10, 1902" and is about the Kansas women's suffrage movement. Frederick also will serve as a respondent for a panel of papers about communication theory.

David Gardner, assistant professor of music and director of choirs, presented a paper titled "A Conductor's Guide to Herbert Howells' Requiem" at the national convention of the American Choral Directors Association in Los Angeles Feb. 5.

Allyson Moon, associate professor of theatre and speech, and Roger Moon, associate professor of theatre and speech, represented Southwestern College at the Kansas Thespian Conference at Johnson County Community College Jan. 7 and 8. Allyson Moon led two workshops, "Acting with Your Eight Intelligences" and "Costume Reincarnation." SC students Jessie Marafioti and Chris Thatcher also attended the conference. Allyson Moon also conducted a workshop titled "Theatre Across the Disciplines" at the KCACTF Region 5 conference in St. Louis. The workshop featured the theory and practice of SC's integrative studies class of the same name.

Michael Wood, assistant professor of business and finance, was presented the Winfield Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Community Educator award at the group's annual meeting Feb. 15. Wood is shown with Chamber executive director/CEO Seth Bate '93 and Chamber president Michael Grant.

Shawn Neises, assistant professor of education and director of the early childhood education program, was inducted into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi at Oklahoma State University on Nov. 18, 2004. She also attended the National Association for Early Childhood Teacher Educators (NAECTE) and the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) conferences in Anaheim Nov. 8-13. Also attending the conference was Amanda (Milch) Johnson '04.

Michael Packard, professional studies program representative at M<sup>c</sup>Connell Air Force, contributed to the naming of the Education Services Office of M<sup>c</sup>Connell AFB as one of the best in the nation. M<sup>c</sup>Connell has been awarded the Nathan Altschuler Award for Excellence in Educational Programs for the Air Mobility Command Division of the Air Force.

The office has won two years in a row and is a final candidate this year to claim the same award for the entire U.S. Air Force. The award names those education services centers that demonstrate outstanding achievement in providing and managing voluntary education program opportunities.

Cheryl Rude, assistant professor of leadership studies and director of Leadership Southwestern, co-presented "Innovative Partners: A Collegiate Leadership Program and a Community Foundation Joint Efforts to Foster Young Adult Leadership" at the Institute for College Student Values, Feb. 4 in Tallahassee, Fla., on the campus of Florida State University. Presenting with Rude were Tara Revell '05, Ruth Guernsey '06, and Pam Moore '96, executive director of the Legacy Community Foundation.

Beth Sheppard, library director, is author of a paper and two recent reviews. The paper, titled "In the Power of the Father: Patria Potestas and God's Children in the Fourth Gospel," was presented at the Society of Biblical Literature national meeting in San Antonio Nov. 20, 2004. The reviews (to be published in American Reference Book Annual vol. 36) were of David M. Stec's The Targum of Psalms: Translated with a Critical Introduction and Notes, and of Daniel G. Reed's The IVP Dictionary of the New Testament: A One-Volume Compendium of Contemporary Biblical Scholarship.

Karen Schoenebeck, assistant professor of accounting, was a co-presenter "Collaborative Skills: Building Effective Teams" at the Joint National Accounting Conference in Chicago on Nov. 11, 2004. Schoenebeck also was elected to serve on the National Leadership Training Series committee of the Educational Foundation for Women in Accounting.

What's new with you?

Name	Class Year
Street Address	P.O. Box
City	State Zip Code
Phone Number

Here's Something New in My Life: (job, address, marriage, baby, etc.)

---

---

---

Here's a student who may be interested in SC: (please fill in all information you know)

Name	Year of Graduation
Street Address	P.O. Box
City	State Zip Code
Parents' Names	Phone Number
E-mail Address (if you know it)	High School/College

Relationship to you (daughter, friend, nephew, etc.)

Any special interests you know of?

RETURN THIS FORM TO:

Nan Hinson • Alumni Notes Coordinator • 100 College St., Winfield, KS 67156-2499
or e-mail information to southwesterner@sckans.edu