

SE

decades of tradition took on a new look during the summer of 2006 when the heart of the hill campaign turned to the mound. renovation began in July and by August students were able to add rocks. the new structure provides opportunities for tribute to the people and organizations that make southwestern college unforgettable.

