

committees and as a Sunday school teacher. She was a member of Embroiderers Guild of America and was active in the Ozarks Needle Workers chapter. Survivors include her husband, C. Ray.

Fred MacDonald '42 died Dec. 20, 2005. During World War II Fred's Army Air Corps company was responsible for maintaining the aircraft that flew over Europe, including those used in the D-Day invasion. A retired educator, Fred taught at McLane High School in Fresno, Calif.

Robert R. Jeffries '43 died Jan. 7, 2006, at the age of 90. A retired United Methodist minister, he served churches in Nebraska and Kansas for nearly 50 years before retiring at Sublette in 1983. Rev. Jeffries was an award-winning iris hybridizer and garden judge. Survivors include his wife, Bertie Mae.

Philo Wooddell '48 died Dec. 31, 2005. During World War II, he was a supply officer in the U.S. Army, serving during the initial occupation of Allied Forces in Japan. Before retiring Philo worked as a purchasing agent for the state of Kansas. For 18 years he was the director of the Winfield Community Food Pantry that operates out of Grace United Methodist Church. Survivors include his wife, Jean '70; a son, Glenn '63; and daughters Ann Anderson '69 and Nancy Maier '85.

Ruth A. (Holmes) Kittle '49 died Nov. 4, 2005, at the age of 78. She was a retired educator. Survivors include her sisters Lila (Holmes) Parks '50 and Lois (Holmes) Packard '55.

1950s

Robert M. Jones '51 died Nov. 16, 2005. Jones enjoyed a 36-year career with the National Conference of Christians and Jews. After retiring in 1991 as executive vice president of the Western Region of NCCJ, he began a second career as founder of the Southern California Leadership Network. Jones was awarded the SC Servant Leadership award at Homecoming 2005. Survivors include a brother, Richard '50.

Bill Thornton '51 died Nov. 27, 2005. A World War II Army veteran, he served in the artillery at Fort Bragg, N.C., and Fort Sill, Okla. He was discharged as a staff sergeant as director of the post message center. Bill retired in 1986 after 33 years as audio visual director for USD 465 (Winfield). He taught hundreds of driver education students to drive, and he refereed basketball games for years.

Olin Allen '52 died Dec. 13, 2005, at the age of 77. Olin served in the United States Army and was stationed in Japan following World War II. He also served in the Korean conflict. A former instructor at Hutchinson High School, he was a social science instructor for nearly 30 years at Hutchinson Community College and served as a department chair for a number of years before retiring in 1990. Survivors include his wife, Donna, and son Michael '74.

Royce G. Orme '52 died Dec. 6, 2005, at the age of 75. After graduating from college he served four years in the U.S. Air Force. He then began his teaching and coaching career at Inman, Blue Rapids, and Belle Plaine. He later joined his father-in-law in the funeral business in Meade. He retired in 2004. Royce served two terms as mayor of Meade, was one of the founders of the Little Dribblers Organization in Meade, and coached numerous baseball teams. Survivors include his wife, Evangeline.

Charles Goforth '53 died Nov. 3, 2005, at the age of 74. After having served in the Korean Conflict as a photo interpreter for the U.S. Army, Charles moved his family to Portland, Ore., where he was a teacher for the Portland School District for 10 years. He then was an administrator for 25 years for Salem School District. He retired from education in 1989. Survivors include his wife, Naomi.

Charles Kielhorn '58 died Dec. 26, 2005, at the age of 72. He taught school in the Lincoln area, then moved to Arkansas City where he drove a truck for Rodeo Meat Packing Co. He later owned and operated the ACW truck line for many years and was a rancher in the Silverdale area. Kielhorn was a longtime coach for youth football and basketball, and was a cofounder of youth league baseball in Arkansas City. He was also instrumental in building many of the fields where today's participants play and practice. Survivors include his wife, Delores.

Richard "Dick" Camp '59 died Dec. 29, 2005, at the age of 71. Camp earned a master's degree at Emporia State University and received a juris doctorate degree from Washburn University in 1966. He was elected Cowley County attorney in 1971 and served two terms through 1979. He received numerous awards during his career for outstanding service and dedication and was a member of the Cowley County Bar Association. Survivors include his wife, Toni; daughters Rita (Camp) Gumm '83, and Carol (Camp) Hood '82, and son Jeff Camp '82.

Daniel Dee Lind '59 died Dec. 13, 2005. Daniel served in the Kansas Army National Guard for eight years. He taught art in Arkansas City public schools for 33 years, retiring in 1998.

1960s

Charline (Harlow) Boyle '60 died Oct. 17, 2005, at the age of 93. She was a retired elementary school teacher.

Jessie (Cranmer) Finley '61 died July 14, 2005, at the age of 94. She was a retired educator. Survivors include a son, Richard Cranmer '67.

Michael Alexander '62 died Jan. 10, 2006. Michael dedicated 37 years to Chaffey College where he held many positions including department chair of communication studies, interim dean of visual and performing arts, dean of student affairs, vice president of personnel, co-creator of the EOPS program, founding faculty of the women's center and the children's center. He taught English, speech, and theatre arts. He was honored as faculty of the year in 1992, and in 2005, was presented the Meritorious Service Award. Survivors include his wife, Kay.

Edna Clark '66 died Jan. 27, 2006, at the age of 93. Edna began teaching in 1931 as a rural school teacher southeast of Dexter for 12 years. She also taught three years in a rural school northeast of Winfield. For 23 years she taught in the Dexter school. She retired in 1975. Edna also taught piano lessons from her home for many years and was the pianist at many school functions.

Dorothy (Probst) Griffith '69 died Oct. 12, 2005, at the age of 87. She was a homemaker and worked as a bookkeeper for Ford Motor Company.

1990s

Steven J. Douthit '97 died Oct. 13, 2005, at the age of 55. Steve served his country in the Army National Guard and Army Reserve for a total of 18 years, retiring from service as a captain. He founded Custom Water Treatment, a water softener and purification business. At the time of his death he was employed by the City of Ponca City, Okla., as a water plant operator. Survivors include his wife, Violy.

Kenneth Goard '99 died Jan. 12, 2006. Ken was a mortgage consultant and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. Survivors include his wife, Glenda.